Lodge Adviser's Minute

Arrowmen,

Welcome to 2025! This will be a year of change, starting with our LEC. You'll see some new faces mixed in with some returning LEC members. When you come to the banquet, you'll see our updated goals, and when you come to the Spring Ordeal, you'll see our first Ordeal at Vinson Valley. This year you'll also see national changes to the American Indian Activities, to include regalia changes. While change can be a challenge, this is also a great time to reset our baseline, start new traditions, and create some new stories!

If your New Years resolution doesn't include getting active in the Lodge, I challenge you to add it to your list. Come on out to our lodge events, invite a friend, join a committee, lead an activity, play a sport, complete a day of service, attend a Section event, and join the summer activity. Lodge Chief Victoria has a great year planned and is excited to embrace the new National Order of the Arrow vision: "To be why Scouts want to stay in Scouting."

YIWWW,
Lou Lilley
Echeconnee Lodge Adviser

Thank you for viewing!

Although this edition of the Deerpath was short, this is only a mere special edition. Make sure to keep an eye out for the 1st edition of Deerpath 2025 in early February, and I will see you next time!

YIS,
Zachary J., Your Incoming Secretary
